

ENGIV

2019 Annual Conference European Network on Gender and Violence

July 17th-19th, 2019

Social Science Research Institute on Gender Issues
Protestant University of Applied Sciences Freiburg
Bugginger Straße 38 - 79114 Freiburg i. Br., Germany

- Program -

FIVE
Forschungs- und
Innovationsverbund
an der Evangelischen
Hochschule Freiburg e.V.

ENGIV

Wednesday - July, 17th

Early Career Researchers' Meeting, Room B2

CHAIR: KSENIA MESHKOVA, HU BERLIN, GERMANY

In preparation of the meetings, chosen participants were asked to write and submit short research papers. All meeting participants receive the papers in advance in order to read and comment on them. During the meeting these papers will be discussed in detail. Please send an e-mail to ksenia.meshkova@gmail.com in order to register for ECRM and receive papers for the discussion.

08:30 – 9:00	Registration for Early Career Participants. Room B1
09:00-10:30	Folke Brodersen , TU Berlin, Germany 'Prevention' of the self as 'preservation' of the self – The case of non-offending pedophiles Sandi Dheensa , U Bristol, UK Researching morally reprehensible behavior: tensions and role conflict
10:30-10:45	Coffee break
10:45-12:15	Bianca Nagel , EH Freiburg, Germany Structures and concepts of institutions of residential care and boarding schools and their effect on personal relationships and interactions of survivors of sexual abuse in the institutions later in life Lucia E. Klencakova , Queen's U Belfast, UK The Impact of Intimate Partner Violence on Teenage Women's Educational
12:15-13:15	Lunch
13:15-15:30	Christine Körner , HU Berlin, Germany Fear, disappointment, oppression. Impressions concerning disparagement, (intimate partner) violence and power structures in research data on sex work Engin Firat, Hacettepe U, Ankara, Turkey Evaluation of Social Work Interventions for Men Who Committed Violence against Women in Ankara/Turkey Greta Squire , U Bristol, UK The Empire Strikes Back: An exploration of the erosion of women's influence within post-industrial States across Europe
15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-17:30	Aleida Lujan , U Turku, Finland Policy and legislation on extreme forms of violence against women in the EU. Case study: Femi(ni)cide in Germany Rosie Reinboldt , U Stirling, UK 'He was always calling me names' – Indexing coercive controlling tactics in narrative as a breach of expectations
17:30-17:45	Closing remarks and future planning

Wednesday – July, 17th

Main Conference

NOTE: Tonight's location is Weinschlösschen Freiburg, Wilhelmstraße 17a, 79098 Freiburg from the train station it is a five-minute walk to the location of the kick-off event.

<https://www.google.com/maps/dir/47.9976189,7.8425066/Wilhelmstraße+17A,+79098+Freiburg+im+Breisgau>

18:00 First Registration at the location of the kick-off event

18:30 Opening Talk – Sofie Danneskiold-Samsøe & Yvonne Mørck, University College Copenhagen / Roskilde University, Denmark

Understanding honour-based social control

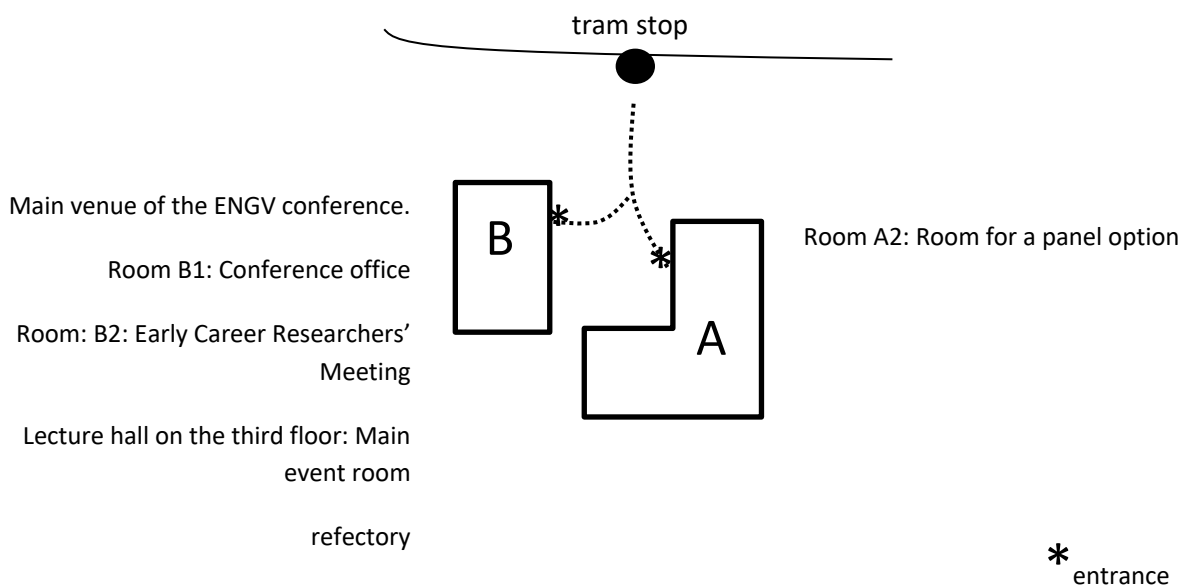

SESSION CHAIR: CORNELIA HELFFERICH, EH FREIBURG, GERMANY

19:00 finger food

This event is overbooked and not everyone can attend, sorry about that! All speakers can attend. Apologies to those who are not presenting and registered too late.

Information for the conference days Thursday and Friday

The program on Thursday and Friday will take place both in the old building (building A) and in the new building (building B). The new building contains all rooms beginning with B as well as the lecture hall. Room A1 is located in the old building / building A.

Thursday, 18th July, lecture hall

08:30 – 9:00 Registration at Protestant University of Applied Sciences, Room B1

09:00 – 9:30 Welcomes by EH Freiburg, SoFFI F., European Network on Gender & Violence

Plenary Sessions: Highlights from the host country

9:30 – 10:30 Monika Schröttle & Ksenia Meshkova (Germany):

Ratification of the Istanbul Convention and the need for monitoring through systematic long-term research / Prevention and intervention in sexual harassment at the workplace

Bianca Grafe (Germany):

'We have to fulfil acrobatic performances at the borders of legality to manage this somehow' – Listening to voices of professionals in intervention against violence

SESSION CHAIR: CORNELIA HELFFERICH, EH FREIBURG, GERMANY

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 – 12:30 Plenary Sessions: Highlights from the host country

Ute Zillig (Germany):

The transgenerational transfer of trauma as an unavoidable fact? A reconstruction of biographical paths out of violent and traumatic experiences

Birgitta Gahleitner, Marilena de Andrade & Maite Gabriel (Germany):

Moments relevant to change in coping with complex experiences of violence as perceived from a gender-differentiating perspective

Mart Busche & Malte Täubrich (Germany):

Sexualized violence against boys as a topic of prevention – (Special) Knowledge from the fields of boys* work, prevention work against sexualized violence, sexual education and queer education*

SESSION CHAIR: RENATE KLEIN, UNIVERSITY OF MAINE, USA

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch & Poster Reception

Parallel Panel Discussions

13:30-14:30

Panel 1: Conceptualizing gender and violence, lecture hall

Christine Buchwald (Germany): Always simply the perpetrator – or is there another truth?

Amalia Gómez-Casillas & Iñaki Permanyer (Spain): ‘Nordic paradox’ or ‘illusion’ of higher rates of intimate partner violence? An assessment of the European Union women victimisation survey’s results

Matthew Hall & Jeff Hearn (UK): Physical violence and online violence/abuse: concepts, terminologies and comparison

SESSION CHAIR: RENATE KLEIN, UNIVERSITY OF MAINE, USA

Panel 2: Femicide research and politics, Room A2

Marceline Naudi, Maria Jose Magalhães, & Monika Schröttle (European Observatory of Femicide): Data Collection and Prevention

Cristina Fabre Rosell (EIGE): Femicide research at the European Institute for Gender Equality

Saide Mobayed (Germany): Lost in the transnational: A global archaeology of femicide/feminicide

Revital Sela-Shayovitz (Israel): Intimate femicide and femicide-suicide in Israel: The role of migration

SESSION CHAIR: KSENIA MESHKOVA, HU BERLIN, GERMANY

14:30-15:00

Coffee break

15:00-16:45

Panel 3: International perspectives on social change, lecture hall

Lis Bates: Male victims of honour-based violence: Who does what to whom and why?

Angela Toffanin, Maura Misiti, Alice Mauri & Marta Pietrobelli: Feminist thoughts and the development of VAW policies in Italy

Vilana Pilinkaite Sotirovic (Lithuania): Societal attitudes about sexual harassment in Lithuania: Moving from revelations to victim blaming

SESSION CHAIR: MONIKA SCHRÖTTLE, TU DORTMUND, GERMANY

Panel 4: Survivors and social context, Room A2

Aleks Dimitrijevic on behalf of Marceline Naudi & colleagues: Bystander intervention to sexual harassment

Regina-Maria Dackweiler, Reinhild Schäfer, Angela Merkle & Franziska Peters (Germany): Elderly intimate partner violence in rural areas

Helena Enright (UK): Surviving family courts: DA survivor’s experiences

SESSION CHAIR: BARBARA KAVEMANN, FIVE FREIBURG, GERMANY

17:00

Adjourn, leave for city reception

18:00

Reception by the City of Freiburg, Alte Gerichtslaube

Friday, 19th July 2019

Parallel Panel Discussions

09:00 – 10:45

Panel 5: Youth, Room A2

Neus Roca-Cortes, Emerson Vicente da-Cruz & Nuria Codina-Mata (Spain): A male chauvinist violence prevention program for 6-11 year-old pupils: Methods and outcomes

Angelika Henschel (Germany): 'It seemed like I was dead all the years and suddenly I was ALIVE' – women's shelter children and their way into life

Andrea Planchadell on behalf of Ana Beltrán Montoliu (Spain): Adolescents and Gender based Violence in Spain

SESSION CHAIR: BARBARA KAVEMANN, FIVE FREIBURG, GERMANY

Panel 6: Disclosure decisions, third-party responses, and survivor experiences of provision, lecture hall

Lis Bates, Debra Allnock & Marianne Hester (UK): Young rape victims in England: Why do and don't they report to police, and what do they want from the criminal justice system?

Oona Brooks-Hay (UK): Understanding why rape victim-survivors report to the police

Nadia Khelaifat (UK): Seen but seldom heard: The healthcare experiences and needs of migrant women affected by domestic violence

SESSION CHAIR: MONIKA SCHRÖTTLE, TU DORTMUND, GERMANY

10:45 - 11:15

Coffee break

11:15 – 13:00

Panel 7: Legislation, policy and justice, lecture hall

Marianne Hester & colleagues (UK): Justice Inequality and Gender Based Violence

Ilknur Yüksel-Kaptanoğlu & Cansu Dayan (Turkey): Assessment of National Legislation of Turkey Over International Norms: Gender-Based Violence Against Women

Carolina Villacampa & Marc Salat (Spain): Stalking. What do victims and professionals think about the legal treatment offered in Spain?

SESSION CHAIR: MONIKA SCHRÖTTLE, TU DORTMUND, GERMANY

A COUPLE OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO PANEL 8 HAVE BEEN CANCELLED. VILANA PILINKAITE SOTIROVIC WILL JOIN PANEL 3 ON THURSDAY 15:00-16:45

13:00-14:00

Lunch

Friday, 19th July (continued)

Parallel Panel Discussions

14:00-16:00

Panel 9: Providing services, Room A2

Daniela Gloor & Hanna Meier (Switzerland): Broader access to victim services with online counselling?! Insights of an evaluation in Switzerland

Stacey Stewart (UK): Do current approaches to child protection social work re-victimise women with violent partners?

Barbara Nägele & Sandra Kotlenga (Germany): Needs assessments and stocktaking of help systems for victims of gender-based violence as planning tools for social policy: methodological reflections

SESSION CHAIR: NADIA KHELAIFAT, UNIVERSITY OF BRISTOL, UK

Panel 10: Interventions with perpetrators, lecture hall

Cristina Oddone (France): Men playing (3 times) the victim: of their wives, of justice, of feminism. Analyzing perpetrators' narratives and their political implications

Engin Firat (Turkey): General characteristics of batterers who participated in court-mandated anger management education in Ankara/Turkey

Karen Morgan & colleagues (UK): The REPROVIDE intervention: is a randomised controlled trial testing the effectiveness of domestic violence perpetrator programs, acceptable to non-mandated perpetrators and their (ex)partners?

Ralf Puchert (European Network for the Work with Perpetrators of Domestic Violence): Current activities and projects

SESSION CHAIR: RENATE KLEIN, UNIVERSITY OF MAINE, USA

16:15-16:45

Best Poster Award and Concluding Remarks (Chair: Cornelia Helfferich, EH Freiburg, Germany) lecture hall

17:00- 18:00

Workshop (Chair: Monika Schröttle, TU Dortmund, Germany) lecture hall

Needs assessments and stocktaking of help systems for victims of gender-based violence as planning tools for social policy: methodological reflections

Posters

Most posters refer to panel sessions. Two weeks before the conference starts participants can view on the SoFFI F. homepage any posters we have received by then [<http://soffi-f.de/engv2019/posters>]. Numbers in brackets after a poster title refer to a panel session with a related theme. Similarly, at the poster display posters will be grouped by panel theme. Posters referring to panels in the lecture hall (building B, third floor) will be displayed outside that lecture hall especially in the corridor on floors 1 and 2. Posters referring to panels in room A2 will be displayed outside room A2 on the ground floor of building A.

Josie Austin & Katie Smith, Women's Aid Federation of England, UK

Nowhere to Turn 2019: Findings from the third year of the No Woman Turned Away project [9]

Lis Bates, University of Bristol, UK

Male victims of honour-based violence: Who does what to whom, and why? [3]

Lis Bates, Debra Allnock & Marianne Hester, University of Bristol, UK

Young rape victims in England: Why do and don't they report to police, and what do they want from the criminal justice system? [6]

Ana Beltrán Montoliu, University Jaume I, Spain

Adolescents and gender-based violence in Spain [5]

Oona Brooks-Hay, University of Glasgow, Scotland, UK

Understanding why rape victim-survivors report to the police [6]

Christine Buchwald, University of Koblenz-Landau, Germany

Always simply the perpetrator – or is there another truth? [1]

Regina-Maria Dackweiler, Reinhild Schäfer, Angela Merkle & Franziska Peters, Hochschule Rhein-Main, Germany

Elderly intimate partner violence in rural areas [4]

Sarah Davidge & Lizzie Magnusson, Women's Aid Federation of England, UK

Economics of abuse: survivors' experiences [7]

Helena Enright, Bath Spa University, UK

Surviving family courts: Domestic abuse survivor's experiences [4]

Victoria A. Ferrer-Pérez, Virginia Ferreiro-Basurto, Andrés Sánchez-Prada, Carmen Delgado-Álvarez & Esperanza Bosch-Fiol, University of Balearic Islands, Spain

The Gender-Violence Implicit Association Test (GV-IAT): A proposal to assess attitudes towards intimate partner violence against women [1]

Engin Firat, Hacettepe University, Turkey

General characteristics of batterers who participated in court-mandated anger management education in Ankara, Turkey [10]

Daniela Gloor & Hanna Meier, Social Insight, Switzerland

Broader access to victim services with online counseling?! Insights of an evaluation in Switzerland [9]

Amalia Gómez-Casillas, Universitat Pompeu Fabra / Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Spain & Iñaki Permanyer, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Spain

'Nordic paradox' or 'illusion' of higher rates of intimate partner violence? An assessment of the European Union women victimisation survey's results [1]

Matthew Hall, Arden University / University of Derby, UK & Jeff Hearn, Örebro University, Sweden

Physical violence and online violence/abuse: concepts, terminologies and comparison [1]

Angelika Henschel, Leuphana University, Germany

„It seemed like I was dead all these years and suddenly I was ALIVE“ – women's shelter children and their way into life [5]

Marianne Hester, Emma Williamson, Amanda Robinson, Sarah-Jane Walker, Andrea Matolcsi, Natasha Mulvihill, Lis Bates, Nathan Eisenstein & Lizzie Magnusson, University of Bristol, UK

Justice inequality and gender-based violence [7]

Nadia Khelaifat, University of Bristol, UK

Seen but seldom heard: The healthcare experiences and needs of migrant women affected by domestic violence and abuse. [6]

Lucia E. Klencakova & Maria Pentaraki, Queen's University Belfast, UK

Consequences of teenage intimate partner violence on young women's and girls' education: A systematic literature review [5]

Saide Mobayed, University of Hamburg, Germany

Lost in the transnational: A global archaeology of femicide/feminicide [2]

Karen Morgan, Helen Cramer, Gene Feder, Mei-See Man, Rebekah Shallcross & Lis Bates, University of Bristol, UK

The REPROVIDE intervention: is a randomised controlled trial testing the effectiveness of domestic violence perpetrator programmes acceptable to non-mandated perpetrators and their (ex)partners? [10]

Barbara Nägele & Sandra Kotlenga, Zoom e.V., Germany

Needs assessments and stocktaking of help systems for victims of gender-based violence as planning tools for social policy: Methodological reflections [9]

Cristina Oddone, University of Strasbourg, France

Men playing (3 times) the victim: of their wives, of justice, of feminism. Analyzing perpetrators' narratives and their political implications [10]

Alessandra Pauncz, Heinrich Geldschläger & Ralf Puchert, European Network for the Work with Perpetrators of Domestic Violence

ENGAGE - Roadmap for Frontline professionals interacting with male perpetrators of domestic violence and abuse to ensure a coordinated multi- agency response to perpetrators [10]

Marta Pietrobelli, Adele Menniti, Pietro Demurtas & Angela M. Toffanin, IRPPS-CNR, Italy

Mapping and improving domestic violence support-services in Italy: Challenges and strengths of a study [9]

Vilana Pilinkaite Sotirovic, Lithuanian Social Research Center, Lithuania

Societal attitudes about sexual harassment in Lithuania: Moving from revelations to victim blaming [8]

Andrea Planchadell-Gargallo, University Jaume I, Spain

Gender violence victims as vulnerable victims and their procedural protection in Spain [7]

Monika Potkanski-Palka, University of Vienna, Austria

'There Was No Love': Forced Marriage and Gender-Based Violence in Austria – A qualitative study based on in-depth interviews with victims and experts [9]

Neus Roca-Cortés, Emerson Vicente Da-Cruz & Nuria Codina-Mata, University of Barcelona, Spain

A male chauvinist violence prevention program for 6-11 year-old pupils: Methods and outcomes [5]

Laura Saldarriaga & Gerd Bohner, University of Bielefeld, Germany

Sexual violence among students at a German University: Victimization, Perpetration, and Bystander Experiences [5]

Revital Sela-Shayovitz, Ono Academic College, Israel

Intimate femicide and femicide-suicide in Israel: The role of migration [2]

Stacey Stewart, Nottingham Trent University, UK

Do current approaches to child protection social work re-victimise women with violent partners? [9]

Sabine Stövesand, University Applied Sciences Hamburg, Germany

Community organizing as an approach to stop and prevent intimate partner violence: Insights, findings, questions [3]

Shaofen Tang, University of Vienna, Austria

Single women living in a violent vortex: The Chinese Experience [3]

Angela M. Toffanin, Maura Misiti, Alice Mauri & Marta Pietrobelli, IRPPS-CNR, Italy

Feminist thoughts and the development of VAW policies in Italy [3]

Berta Vall, Nina George, Alessandra Pauncz, Heinrich Goldschläger & Marianne Hester, European Network for the Work with Perpetrators of Domestic Violence

Impact Monitoring Toolkit: A process and outcome monitoring tool for perpetrator treatment in Europe [10]

Carolina Villacampa, University of Lleida, Spain

Forced marriages: Qualitative research with victims and professionals [9]

Carolina Villacampa & Marc Salat, University of Lleida, Spain

Stalking: What do victims and professionals think about the legal treatment offered in Spain? [7]

İlknur Yüksel-Kaptanoğlu & Cansu Dayan, Hacettepe University, Turkey

Assessment of national legislation of Turkey over international norms: Gender-based violence against women [7]